

4. Upon arriving in Annapolis, Maryland on September 29, 1767, John Carrington, owner of the slave auction, discusses the "Golden Triangle." In your own words, explain what the "Golden Triangle" was.

5. Prior to the auction, some slave owners talk about slavery and cattle. Why do they feel a useless cow better than a useless slave?

6. After watching Kunta's reaction to the slave auction, how do you think he felt? Do you think he knew what was going on?

7. Kunta was purchased by John Reynolds of Spotsylvania County, Virginia. His wife wonders why they cannot teach the slaves to read. What reasons are given for not teaching the slaves how to read?

8. Mr. Reynolds employs a white man named Ames who was a former indentured servant. How is indentured servitude different from slavery?